

Across The Pond

IF YOU'VE ever wondered how Hollywood stars have such gleaming white smiles, we can reveal their secret. The whitening treatment — favoured by everyone from Catherine Zeta-Jones to Britney Spears — is called Ultrasonic, and it takes only ten minutes to achieve that snow-glo look. The treatment is available at only one dental surgery in the UK — Druian & Spektor in Hampstead. Fans include TV presenter Carol Vorderman. Cost £775. Visit www.whiterteeth.co.uk or call Druian & Spektor on 020 7722 1235.
